

1. IDENTIFICATION – As a Texian National you will be identified with a sovereign entity (herein after), the Republic of Texas. A Texian National will not be a Citizen of the State of Texas, a United States Citizen or an American Citizen. Just as one born or naturalized in Norway would be a Norwegian National, one born or naturalized in the Republic of Texas will be a National of the sovereign Texas Republic. Texian Nationals will not be subjects of any other government.

2. TAXATION – As a Texian National you will not be subject to comply with any tax of the State of Texas or parts of the States of Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico, Colorado, and Wyoming, or the United States. Texian Nationals will not be required to pay enforcers Federal Income Tax, Social Security, or FICA. IRS, Federal taxes including those limited to basics such as national defense, highway, police or courts. The people’s Government will operate only from importexport fees and Chartered Corporate fees.

3. LAND OWNERSHIP – As a Texian National you will have the ability to reclaim the land that you live on through a land patent and the possibility of owning your land outright (allodial title) exists.

4. ENERGY – As a Texian National you will be free to use and develop any energy system technologically available. Texian Nationals will be free to pursue and use renewable and free energy options.

5. MEDICINE – As a Texian National you will be free to pursue any remedy available to cure or relieve symptoms related to your body. Vaccines will not be forced upon Texian Nationals. No plant that grows naturally (such as hemp) will be prohibited from use for medicinal purposes. What is commonly called “alternative” medicine in America today will remain viable if one prefers it as what has come to be considered “traditional” medicine.

6. BANKING – The Republic of Texas will not charter banks that would profit from the use of fractional reserve banking or by charging interest (usury). Texian Nationals will be able to lend and borrow from each other without interest, and instead pay reasonable service charges for gold, silver depository and storage services.

7. BUSINESS – As a Texian National you will be able start a business in the Republic of Texas without all of the red tape and filing requirements typical of business today. All chartered businesses by the Republic of Texas shall demonstrate that they serve the public good in order to maintain their charter. Businesses chartered by the Republic of Texas will not pay or collect Social Security, FICA contributions, and will be relieved from all UNITED STATES compliance requirements. To Charter a business one may contact the local County Representative currently found on www.TheTexasRepublic.com

8. ROADS – The Republic of Texas will stand behind the right of freedom to travel. No individual traveling on Texas highways will have to pay a toll unless using the public roads for profit. Speed limit signs in the Republic of Texas will be suggested caution maximums and the use of seat belts will be optional. In Common Law all travelers are responsible for their own actions.

9. FIREARMS – As a Texian National you will have the right to purchase, carry and responsibly use firearms without registrations or permits. Militia groups within the Republic of Texas will be encouraged to protect private property from all enemies, foreign or domestic in support of your local county Sheriff and or the Commander-in-Chief.

10. FREEDOM – As a Texian National you will have God given inalienable rights at birth for life and the right to free speech, right to freedom of worship, right to freedom of personal security, plus all other freedoms found in the 1836 Declaration of Rights.

11. LAW – The Republic of Texas shall function on basically one rule—the Golden Rule. Justice will be achieved through common law through a jury of one’s peers, and any statutes written by the Texian National Government shall be kept to a minimum and written in plain English so that all can read and understand them.

12. GOVERNMENT – The Republic of Texas believes that the best government is the Texian people’s local government. Government in the Republic of Texas shall be limited with the greatest authority being given to Texian National’s local municipalities and Counties rather than the National government. The highest authority over all entities though belongs to our one Almighty God.

13. EDUCATION – As a Texian National you will have the freedom to have your child educated as you see fit at your own expense. Private and public schools will be encouraged and will be locally controlled.

14. HUNTING and FISHING – As a Texian National you will have the right to hunt and fish without a license or permit for your own needs and the needs of your family and friends except on private lands without permission from the land owner.

15. MARRIAGE and CHILDREN – The Republic of Texas shall not require marriage licenses and shall not take any children away for not complying with so called state or local statutes. The rights of children shall be protected from conception through the courts, as would anyone else’s rights.

16. EQUALITY – No Texian National shall have any claim of superiority over any other Texian by way of age, sex, ethnicity, or religion. Slavery in any form shall be unlawful in the Republic of Texas.

16. LEGACY – In the Republic of Texas, property may be passed from generation to generation without probate taxation.

17. POLITICS – In the Republic of Texas there will be no political parties. Those who run for political office do so based on their own merits and record. Strict term limits exist for all politicians to avoid corruption.

18. Future examples without compliance to the Corporatist Socialism Tyrannical Governments of present enforcers: airports without the Transportation Security Administration; gun sales without the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; lands protected by peace officers without the military style color of law enforcers; land development without the Endangered Species Act, EPA, Climate Control; new congressional districts without the Voting Rights Act; and a new guest-worker program without ICE and Washington gridlock over immigration reform. The new norm is with a much leaner government that bears little resemblance to the enforcers' fullservice nation it left behind.

Texian Republic Common Law: 1 Let it be written, Our word is our bond and we will not intentionally harm another living soul and will respect and bring no harm to anyone's private property (ies).